BETTER THAN GOLD!

Ровтямости, July 9, 1851. Мв. J. E. Boush—Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make known the benefit I have derived from Dr. Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For a number of years I suffered from disease, but to a greater degree for the last three years. One of the forms of my disease was dyspepsia. From this dreadful malady I suffered to such an ex-tent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on tent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the heart; there was a constant thumping and beating without intermission about the region of my heart, chest, and stomach; some of the attacks would last for weeks; my stomach was much distended, with constant pain, great weakness, and constipation of the bowels. I could not eat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain in the back, that I could walk only with great difficulty. I tried nearly all of the most celebrated patent medicines of the day, but found no relief. I had also the best medical attendance. One of my physicians frankly told me it was of no use for me to be paying him for advice, as he could do me no good. I gave up almost in despair, and thought my disease certainly incurable.

At this juncture I heard of Hampton's Vegetable Tincure. I refused to give it a trial, although persuaded by my friends, until my son purchased a few bottles, and requested me to try it; after taking it a few times, it had a most happy effect on me; my confidence increased, and after faking three bottles, my dymensia or disease of the a most happy effect on me; my confidence increased, and after taking three bottles, my dyspepsia, or disease of the stomach, was nearly if not entirely cured. I now fael myself a new man, and in better health than for years. I am cortain the cure in my case was made by this Hampton's Vogetable Tincture alone. Since my cure I have recommended the tincture to a number of my friends, who have also been releved by it. Some of the cures have been as rapid and equally wonderful as mino.

I present my respects to Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray, the proprietors of this valuable medicine, and say to them its value is above price; and from my cure, and what I have seen of its effects on others, I shall ever feel it my duty to recommend it to the suffering. I have no doubt many valuable lives will be prolonged by its use. I hope the afflicted will cast aside their prejudices and give it a trial. Yours most respectfully,

(Signed) trial. Yours most respectfully, trial. Yours most respectfully, (Signed)

Join Luke.

The above is extracted from a letter from a gentleman sixty years of age, and of high character. He says: "I have given but a faint idea of my sufferings; I feel inadequate to the task." We also have received, in the last few days, letters from two of our most worthy and well-known citizens, giving two remarkable cures of spinal disease. But yesterday one of the oldest merchants reported that he was cured of neuralgia of the head, of years standing, and so bad that his teeth fell out from its effects. Call and see letters. Was there ever so many cures, wonderful cures, made by any other medicine. All we ask of the afflicted is that they try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, the great purifier of the blood and cure for all chronic diseases, as dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowels. &c.

STRILL ANOTHER of our most talented and highly respectable citizens speaks for Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE:

Baltimorz, July 18, 1851.

Meszrs. Mortimer & Moubray:—Gentlemen: My daughter having been sfilicted for more than a year with the spinal disease, and having tried every remedy that was prescribed by some of our best physicians, without affording her any apparent relief, I fortunately was advised by a friend to try a bottle of "Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture," which relieved her of her pain in less than twenty-four hours. I am pleased to say that since she took it she has been free from pain, and she is gradually gaining strength, which I attribute entirely to the restorative properties of this medicine. I believe if it were more extensively used, it would do more good in the removal of such diseases incident to the human family than what is usually prescribed. what is usually prescribed.

OLIVER EVANS, 61 S. Second, 1 door below Chestnut street, Philadelphia. BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE, BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINGURGH REVIEW,
THE RORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formorly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretoffer issued.

this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scars—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counterest the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincorely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manufacturers, and Bankers, to an investigation of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility of traders in the U. States. Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans: these, in connection with our long established offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been gausally successful.
